Councilmember Gloria Comments on “Compton Cookout”

SAN DIEGO, CA (February 22, 2010) – San Diego City Councilmember Todd Gloria released the following statement about the recent “Compton Cookout” event at University of California, San Diego, mocking Black History Month.

“I was extremely disappointed by the recent behavior of some students at UCSD that were blatantly racist,” said Councilmember Todd Gloria. “San Diego has made great progress toward equality for all people, yet intolerance unfortunately still remains, even on our nation’s most elite college campuses. We must rededicate ourselves to the elimination of ignorance and to the celebration of our commonalities and differences.”
